ESSENTIALS TO KNOW ...

Utility hookup: Electricity is with Edison, 1-800-655-4555. Propane is available through several vendors: AC Propane, (951) 769-0227; Ballard Gas, (951) 652-6854; Ferrellgas, (951) 845-1643; Mutual Propane, (909) 208-2159; and Suburban Propane (951) 659-2642. Water service depends on where you live: Fern Valley residents call Fern Valley Water District, (951) 659-2200; Idyllwild residents call Idyllwild Water District, (951) 659-2143; Pine Cove residents call Pine Cove Water District, (951) 659-2675; and Garner Valley and Lake Hemet customers call Lake Hemet Municipal Water District, (951) 658-3241.

How do I get mail? Idyllwild, Pine Cove and Mountain Center residents receive mail in post office boxes only. To get a box, take a utility bill or something that shows your local residence address to your nearest post office. Idyllwild Post Office is located in the Strawberry Creek Square off Village Center Drive. Pine Cove Post Office is at the Pine Cove Market and the Mountain Center Post Office is at the intersection of highways 243 and 74. If you live in Garner Valley, you can get mail delivered by postal route. Visit the Mountain Center Post Office for more information. A FedEx pickup receptacle is located in front of the Green Cafe at 54445 North Circle Drive. DHL, FedEx and UPS all deliver and pick up on the Hill. Their phone numbers are: DHL, 1-800-225-5345; FedEx, 1-800-463-3339; and UPS, 1-800-742-5877.

Trash: Private businesses and Waste Management, 1-800-874-7774, will haul your trash. Most people haul their own to the Idyllwild Transfer Station on Saunders Meadow Road. Recycling is encouraged there and large bins are available, no pre-sorting required (except for cardboard), just dump the glass with the paper. Bins also are available for bulky items and an area is set aside for dumping vegetation matter (pine needles, leaves, branches).

Newspaper delivery: The weekly Idyllwild Town Crier is mailed and put in newspaper stands around town every Wednesday morning (unless Monday is a holiday, then delivery is Thursday). Call (951) 659-2145 for a subscription. The Riverside Press-Enterprise, 1-800-794-6397, and Los Angeles Times, 1-800-252-9541, are available daily in newsstands and also by paper route.

Where are the stores? Village Market is located on Highway 243 near North Circle Drive. Village Hardware is located right next door. Fairway Market is in the Strawberry Creek Square off Village Center Drive. Idyllwild General Store and Idyllwild Pharmacy are located in the same plaza. Forest Lumber is located on Lower Pine Crest Avenue. Nearby on Maranatha Drive is Community Lumber. Pick up an Idyllwild Visitor's Guide for more on local shopping. Off-Hill shopping is about 45 minutes away in Hemet or Banning and about an hour away in Palm Desert. These cities have large chain stores.

Driver and vehicle licenses:

Department of Motor Vehicles, 1200 S. State St., Hemet, 1-800-777-0133 or log on to www.dmv.ca.gov/

Registering to vote: Voter registration forms are available at the Idyllwild and Mountain Center post offices and Idyllwild Library, by calling the Riverside County Registrar of Voters (951) 486-7200 or online (www.ss.ca.gov/elections/votereg1.html). Idyllwild residents vote at Town Hall on Cedar Street and Pine Cove residents vote at the Pine Cove Water District office on Marion Ridge Road. Residents in other Hill communities vote by absentee ballot.

Peculiarities ...

Locals call the area "the Hill." The local Post Office is where people hang out and where service organizations set up card tables to sell event tickets and other fundraising items. Idyllwild has about 75 volunteer/service organizations, one for every 42 residents. There are three water districts instead of one, serving about 2,000 meters. Every few years, efforts to combine the water districts, incorporate the town or install a traffic light are defeated. The only "chain" businesses are the gas stations and a few real estate offices; otherwise the stores are mom-and-pop outfits. Strawberry Creek Square's parking lot is a one-way loop, but often only the locals know this since the arrows fade away. Newcomers usually learn this navigational peculiarity the hard way. Idyllwild Arts Academy presents professional-level concerts, dances, films and art shows, mostly free, by talented students from all over the world.

SURVIVING ...

Snow: In winter, passing storms dump tons of snow on Idyllwild, sometimes causing panic among the unprepared. Caltrans plows the highways and Riverside County Transportation plows the residential streets. Be prepared to have to shovel snow berms from around your vehicle that snowplows create.

Emergency information: In an emergency, such as a wildfire, the Town Crier newspaper gives updates on its Web site (www.towncrier.com).

Crime: For emergencies, call 911. For nonemergencies, call Riverside County Sheriff's Department, 1-800-950-2444.

Fire: Call 911 to report smoke or fire.

Power outages/lines down: Call SCE at 1-800-611-1911.

WHO RUNS THE TOWN?

Idyllwild-area communities are unincorporated. The main local level of government is Riverside County with the county seat in Riverside. Idyllwild is in the 3rd District of the county. The 3rd District county supervisor is Jeff Stone in Riverside. He has two advisory boards in Idyllwild. County Service Area 38 is located in Pine Cove and covers ambulance/fire service. County Service Area 36 is in Idyllwild and covers recreation/street lamps. The Chamber of Commerce has a contract with the county to run recreation programs within CSA 36 that probably will be transferred over to the Idyllwild Community Recreation Council sometime within 2007. Idyllwild-area communities have four water districts and a fire district, all with five-member boards, that are separate from the county government. Within and surrounding Idyllwild are county, state and federal lands. The largest area — the San Bernardino National Forest — is run by the U.S. Forest Service.

FUN ...

Barbecue permits: Idyllwild Fire Department requires residents to have a permit for barbecues on private property. One-day permits are required for fire rings and barbecues in Idyllwild. The permit is free and available at the station. Riverside County Fire, which covers Pine Cove, Mountain Center and Garner Valley, does not have barbecue regulations.

A GUIDE TO LIVING IN IDYLLWILD

Parks: Idyllwild County Park off of Lower Pine Crest Avenue has picnic tables, as does the Idyllwild Nature Center and Mt. San Jacinto State Park, both north of Idyllwild off of Highway 243. They all have fees. The Idyllwild Area Historical Society on North Circle Drive has picnic tables for free use. Most hiking trails are in wilderness areas and require a free permit. Visit the Idyllwild Ranger Station at the corner of Highway 243 and Pine Crest Avenue or Mt. San Jacinto State Park for permits. Also, if you park on Forest Service land, you may need an Adventure Pass from the Idyllwild Ranger Station. There is a charge for the pass.

Mountain Disaster Preparedness is a nonprofit organization of trained volunteers who serve the communities of Pine Cove, Idyllwild and Mountain Center.

We have no paid personnel and rely on public tax-deductible contributions for our operations and equipping our 7 Neighborhood Collection Points, which are strategically located throughout the community.

DO YOU KNOW WHERE YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD COLLECTION POINT IS? If severe damage to your home/workplace, or need for medical care, go to your nearest NCP.

DISASTER READINESS ... DON'T PANIC!

Be prepared for any emergency that might arise. Inquire about emergency plans that will be put in place at schools or workplaces. Discuss emergency plans and procedures with other members of the household so everyone can act as a unit, each holding individual responsibilities.

Emergencies sometimes occur while driving. Some of the items listed at the right also should be kept in the car.

LOCAL DISASTER PREPAREDNESS PROGRAMS

Mountain Disaster Preparedness is a volunteer unit of Civil Defense organized to help meet the community's needs in the event of an earthquake, a wildfire or unusually severe weather.

Its members are from Idyllwild, Mountain Center and Pine Cove. They include amateur radio operators, medical personnel and other community residents assigned to various portions of the Hill. Their job is to serve as a local support for agencies responsible for fire suppression, protection of life and property and the maintenance of civil order. Volunteers are needed. For information, call Nancy Layton at 659-8100.

Although natural disasters alone pose a threat to the Hill's citizens, their resultant effects on roads leading to the mountain communities also are a threat. Road closures could temporarily isolate residents from off-Hill support.

Emergency radio station WNKI, 1610 AM, gives updates on conditions following an emergency situation. It will include information on roads, school closures, food and shelter locations and emergency medical facilities. The station broadcasts 8 a.m.-5 p.m. daily in nonemergency situations and 24 hours in emergency situations as long as the emergency exists.

Also, Hill residents may visit the Idyllwild Town Crier's Web site at www.towncrier.com during emergencies for updates.

In the case of a disaster, Hill residents should go to one of the eight designated Neighborhood

Collection Points shown on bulletin boards at the Idyllwild and Pine Cove post offices.

IMPORTANT ITEMS TO HAVE ON HAND...

A plan for family members to reunite if a telephone is not available.

Flashlights with spare batteries.

Portable radio with spare batteries.

First aid kit and instructional handbook.

Fire extinguishers.

Food (canned, dry or dehydrated) for a week to 10 days for all members of the family (including those with special dietary needs). Don't forget household pets.

Water, two quarts per day per person. Water heater and toilet tank (not bowl) can be used as emergency sources.

Alternate cooking source, such as a barbecue grill or outdoor stove, with appropriate fuel.

Matches, kept in a watertight container.

Alternate heat source, such as a wood-burning stove or fireplace, that does not rely on electricity or gas service.

Tools, such as a pipe wrench and crescent wrench for turning off gas and water mains.

Supplies for hygiene and sanitation, such as plastic bags, pre-moistened towelettes, toilet paper and soap, and chlorine bleach.

Heavy shoes and work gloves for each member of the household.

Warm clothing and blankets.

Alternative housing, such as a tent, sleeping bags, etc.

IN AN EARTHQUAKE...

IF INDOORS — stay there. Get under a table or desk or stand in a doorway. Stay away from windows, mirrors, bookcases and fireplaces. If possible, turn off the stove if it is on.

IF OUTDOORS — stay in the open, away from buildings, walls, trees or power lines.

IF IN A CAR — pull over to the side of the road, away from power lines, rocky hillsides, bridges or overpasses. Stay in the car and turn on the radio.

Idyllwild Design Center,

Just a short note to say “thanks” for the work on our “little place in the mountains,” (or as I sometimes call it, “Casa De Patience”).

I should have got back to you before we got as far as we did during the construction of our place, and had you do the hardwood floors, too. We did get together for the vinyl and carpeting and I must say, we are quite pleased with the results. We found you and Idyllwild Design Center to be very knowledgeable, not “pushy” and open to discussion regarding any questions that we may have had.

The work you provided was completed in as timely a fashion as the weather would allow. We are very pleased with the quality of the work. The carpeting is “tight,” with no visible seams or contrast in the “grain.” The carpet in the loft is done just as well, having been laid with the angle of the ceiling and floor to contend with along two sides. I must compliment you on your choice of crews.

When we purchased the “solar shade” for the front, I was able to be there for the installation and was very impressed with the crew that came out. They were “top notch” and very conscious of cleaning as they went and careful to “not make the mess in the first place.”

Again, thank you for everything, and be aware, I would recommend you and your shop “Idyllwild Design Center” to anybody that may ask.

Sincerely,

Carl Bailey
